Fried Frank submits this Fee Application pursuant to sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code and in accordance with the Order Under 11 U.S.C. § 331 Establishing Procedures For Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Professionals, entered November 4, 2005 (Docket No. 869) (as supplemented by Docket Nos. 2747, 2986, 3630, 4545, 5310, and 6145, the “Interim Compensation Order”), the Amended Guidelines for Fees and Disbursements of Professionals in the Southern District of New York Bankruptcy Cases, adopted by this Court on April 19, 1995 (the “Amended Guidelines”), and the United States Trustee Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses filed under 11 U.S.C. § 330, adopted on January 30, 1996 (the “UST Guidelines”). In support of this Fee Application, Fried Frank respectfully states as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. The Equity Committee retained Fried Frank on May 8, 2006, subject to Bankruptcy Court approval, which was subsequently obtained on June 19, 2006. In assisting the Equity Committee during the Fee Period, Fried Frank devoted, and through the present date, Fried Frank continues to devote, a significant amount of professional effort to reviewing the pressing transformational issues in the Chapter 11 Cases, including issues relating to labor, pension, other benefits, and General Motors Corporation (“GM”). In addition, Fried Frank is working with the Equity Committee in its attempt to effectuate a resolution of the Chapter 11 Cases in a manner that maximizes value for all of the Debtors’ constituencies.

2. The Interim Compensation Order provides that, no later than the last calendar day of the second month following each four-month fee application period, professionals may request court approval of the compensation and reimbursement of expenses requested. In accordance with the Interim Compensation Order, Fried Frank now submits its third interim fee application.

BACKGROUND

3. On October 8 and 14, 2005, Delphi and certain of its U.S. subsidiaries and affiliates filed voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York. This Court entered orders directing the joint administration of the Chapter 11 Cases.

5. On March 30, 2006, the Court entered an order (the “Equity Committee Order”) directing the UST to appoint a committee of equity security holders pursuant to section 1102 of the Bankruptcy Code.

6. On April 28, 2006, the UST appointed the Equity Committee. On May 8, 2006, the Equity Committee determined, subject to Court approval, to retain Fried Frank as its counsel. The retention of Fried Frank nunc pro tunc to May 8, 2006 was approved by this Court by order dated June 19, 2006 (the “Retention Order”).¹

7. On May 5, 2006, the Court entered an order establishing a Joint Fee Review Committee, among other things.

8. On July 31, 2006, Fried Frank filed its first interim fee application for the period from May 8, 2006 through May 31, 2006 (the “First Interim Fee Application”). The First Interim Fee Application sought the allowance of (i) fees in the amount of $598,265.00 and (ii) expenses in the amount of $5,451.63. After discussions with the Joint Fee Review Committee, Fried Frank agreed to reduce its fees sought in the First Interim Fee Application by $10,700.00. In accordance with the omnibus order granting second interim applications for the February 1, 2006 through May 31, 2006 period, Fried Frank was awarded $587,565.00 in professional fees and $5,451.63 in expenses. Fried Frank has received payment of these fees and expenses.

9. On November 30, 2006, Fried Frank filed its second interim fee application for the period from June 1, 2006 through September 30, 2006 (the “Second Interim Fee Application”). The Second Interim Fee Application sought the allowance of (i) fees in the amount of $2,637,791.00 and (ii) expenses in the amount of $162,011.61. After discussions with the Joint Fee Review Committee, Fried Frank agreed to reduce its fees sought in the Second Interim Fee Application by $40,000.00. In accordance with the omnibus order granting third interim applications for the June 1, 2006 through September 30, 2006 period, on February 15, 2007, Fried Frank was awarded $2,633,791.00 in professional fees and $162,011.61 in expenses. Fried Frank has received payment of these fees and expenses.

During the Fee Period, Fried Frank submitted monthly fee statements in accordance with the Interim Compensation Order for the periods October 1, 2006 through October 31, 2006 (the “October Fee Period”), November 1, 2006 through November 30, 2006 (the “November Fee Period”), December 1, 2006 through December 31, 2006 (the “December Fee Period”), and January 1, 2007 through January 31, 2007 (the “January Fee Period”). To date, Fried Frank has received payment equal to 80% of fees and 100% of expenses incurred during the October Fee Period, the November Fee Period, and the December Fee Period.

REASONABLE AND NECESSARY SERVICES RENDERED BY FRIED FRANK

19. Set forth below is a description of the services rendered during the Fee Period. The attorneys and paraprofessionals of Fried Frank maintained daily detailed records of their time concurrently with the rendition of professional services. To the extent possible, the details of each and every conference, telephone conversation, negotiating session, letter, memorandum, factual investigation, drafting activity and research project that occupied the time of a Fried Frank professional were set forth in such time records. Accompanying this Fee Application as Exhibit F are compilations of the contemporaneous daily time entries recorded by Fried Frank's attorneys and paraprofessionals during the Fee Period. Those entries describe in detail the services rendered by each attorney and paraprofessional, as corrected to reflect errors that were found in Fried Frank's review. Accordingly, the following is intended to serve as a summary description of the principal professional services Fried Frank rendered, and to highlight the benefits that were thereby conferred upon the Equity Committee.

It also includes time spent preparing for each of the omnibus hearings and status conferences that occurred during the Fee Period.

24. A substantial amount of time in this category relates to the Equity Committee’s efforts in connection with the Framework Motion and the Framework Hearing. The Equity Committee efforts in connection with the Framework Hearing resulted in improved terms in the framework agreements that benefited the estate. The timing of the Framework Motion and Framework Hearing resulted in an abbreviated period for Fried Frank to conduct discovery and respond to the Framework Motion. This category includes the time Fried Frank spent in preparing for and participating in discovery, including meet and confer conferences with the Court, the Debtors, the Creditors' Committee, and other parties in interest for the Framework Hearing. In addition, Fried Frank spent substantial time reviewing produced documents and preparing for depositions in connection with the Framework Hearing. Fried Frank also spent substantial time analyzing the Framework Motion and the framework agreements, reviewing and analyzing objections to the Framework Motion filed by other parties and preparing the Equity Committee's objection to the Framework Motion, including researching issues in connection with the objection. This category also includes a considerable amount of time preparing for the Framework Hearing.

In addition, Fried Frank implemented task codes and electronic filing procedures in accordance with the guidelines promulgated by Legal Cost Control, Inc. on behalf of the Fee Committee (as such term is defined in the Interim Compensation Order) established in the Chapter 11 Cases. Fried Frank also spent time reviewing and responding to the Fee Committee’s reports regarding Fried Frank’s fees.

Fried Frank rendered a total of 886.80 hours and $543,087.00 in services falling within the category of “Settlement and Restructuring.” Fried Frank devoted time analyzing and discussing the rights offering as contemplated by the framework agreements and researching alternative structures. Fried Frank also reviewed the proposal submitted by Highland Capital Management and discussing that proposal with the members of the Equity Committee. 32. During the fee period Fried Frank spent time attending meetings with the Debtors, Creditors’ Committee and Plan Investors, and communicating with the Equity Committee with respect to the restructuring proposals and responding to questions posed by various members of the Equity Committee. Fried Frank also spent substantial time reviewing, researching, analyzing in detail, and submitting comments on the framework agreement drafts that were distributed by the Debtors.

33. Additionally, Fried Frank assisted the Equity Committee in considering and pursuing alternative framework options, which would provide greater value to the estate.

FRIED FRANK’S FEES AND EXPENSES ARE FAIR AND REASONABLE

34. In accordance with the factors enumerated in section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, Fried Frank believes that the total fees and expenses for the Fee Period are fair and reasonable in view of the time spent, the complexity and intricacy of the proceedings, and the problems and issues encountered. Fried Frank and the Equity Committee worked diligently throughout the Fee Period to address key issues in the Chapter 11 Cases as expeditiously as possible and to ensure that their efforts were within the scope of the Equity Committee’s mandate, as set forth in the Equity Committee Order. Therefore, in accordance with the factors enumerated in 11 U.S.C. §330(a)(3), Fried Frank believes that the compensation sought herein should be approved.

APPLICABLE AUTHORITY

35. In awarding compensation pursuant to section 328 of the Bankruptcy Code to counsel for an official equity committee, this Court must take into account the reasonableness of the terms and conditions of employment. Section 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides in pertinent part:

(a) The trustee, or a committee appointed under section 1102 of this title, with the court's approval, may employ or authorize the employment of a professional person under section 327 or 1103 of this title, as the case may be, on any reasonable terms and conditions of employment, including on a retainer, on an hourly basis, or on a contingent fee basis. Notwithstanding such terms and conditions, the court may allow compensation different from the compensation provided under such terms and conditions after the conclusion of such employment, if such terms and conditions prove to have been improvident in light of developments not capable of being anticipated at the time of the fixing of such terms and conditions.

11 U.S.C. § 328(a).

36. In awarding compensation to professionals pursuant to section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, this Court must take into account the cost of comparable non-bankruptcy services, among other factors. Section 330(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides in pertinent part:

(1) . . . [T]he court may award to a trustee, an examiner, a professional person employed under section 327 or 1103 -

(A) reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered by the trustee, examiner, professional person, or attorney and by any paraprofessional person employed by any such person; and

(B) reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses.

(3) (A) In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded, the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including -

(A) the time spent on such services;

(B) the rates charged for such services;

(C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;

(D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed; and

(E) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

11 U.S.C. § 330(a).

37. In accordance with the factors enumerated in section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, Fried Frank respectfully submits that the fees and expenses incurred in the course of rendering professional services are actual, necessary and reasonable, based upon the nature, extent and value of such services, the time spent thereon, and the costs of comparable services in non-bankruptcy cases, so as to best serve the needs of the Equity Committee and the Debtors' estates. Fried Frank submits further that the legal services performed herein among partners, associates, and paraprofessionals have been executed in accordance with the principles outlined above and, moreover, in a manner consistent with the overall goal of Fried Frank to provide the highest quality of legal representation at a reasonable cost. Fried Frank has demonstrated by this Fee Application that the work it has done on behalf of the Equity Committee was necessary, reasonable and benefits the Debtors' equity security holders, unsecured creditors and the Debtors' estates.

38. This Fee Application clearly reflects (a) the number of hours of recorded time Fried Frank has devoted to the performance of legal services; (b) the number of hours worked by each of Fried Frank's professionals and paraprofessionals and the hourly rate customarily charged by such persons; (c) a detailed description of the services provided by Fried Frank's professionals and paraprofessionals during each of those hours; and (d) the quality and nature of the services provided by each of Fried Frank's professionals and paraprofessionals.

Fried Frank submits that its fees and expenses were actual, necessary, reasonable and justified and should, therefore, be allowed in full.

COMPENSATION REQUESTED

39. Given the circumstances of the Chapter 11 Cases, the professional services rendered by Fried Frank require an expenditure of a great deal of time and effort. During the Fee Period, approximately 4,788 recorded hours were expended by Fried Frank's partners, counsel, associates and paraprofessionals in the rendition of Fried Frank's professional services.

40. Fried Frank believes that its services were rendered in a highly efficient manner, by attorneys with high levels of skill in the areas for which they rendered services. The core group of attorneys working on this matter has expended considerable time in connection with the Equity Committee's general legal needs and in furtherance of the Equity Committee's goal of furthering the interests of all equity security holders. This experienced group of attorneys makes every effort to ensure that the Chapter 11 Cases progress in as efficient and expeditious a manner as possible and result in the successful reorganization of the Debtors.

41. For all the foregoing reasons, Fried Frank respectfully requests approval and allowance of its compensation in the amount of $2,701,363.00, with an authorization for, and direction to, the Debtors to disburse such amounts to Fried Frank. This Fee Application is Fried Frank's third interim fee application for allowance of fees and disbursements incurred by Fried Frank as counsel to the Equity Committee. An allowance of compensation in the amount sought in this Fee Application would result in a blended aggregate average billing rate of approximately $564.22 per hour and a blended rate (excluding paraprofessionals) of approximately $601.09 per hour (based on recorded hours).

EXPENSES

42. As noted above, Fried Frank incurred and posted disbursements in the amount of $133,271.20 for actual and necessary expenses incurred and recorded during the Fee Period. These disbursements are itemized in Exhibit D.

43. Fried Frank's billing rates do not include components for duplicating, word processing, and other extraordinary charges that may be incurred by particular clients because of the exigencies of time and volume of demand. Fried Frank's billing method, whereby only the clients who use copying, word processing and other office services are charged for such services, maximizes fairness to all clients. Fried Frank commenced a comprehensive study and review to determine its actual costs per page for duplicating. Such study and review determined that, at the present time, Fried Frank's actual duplicating cost is 12¢ per page. In November 2006, Fried Frank became aware that the Fee Committee was taking the position that reimbursement for photocopies should be limited to 10¢ per page. Fried Frank believes that, pursuant to the Local Guidelines, photocopies should be reimbursed at Fried Frank's 12¢ per page actual cost. However, upon learning of the Fee Committee's position, Fried Frank immediately and voluntarily adjusted its charges from that point forward to 10¢ per page.

44. Fried Frank's billing rates do not include a component for word processing as part of overhead. Some time ago, Fried Frank analyzed its method of charging clients for word processing services and, specifically whether it was appropriate to charge clients for word processing as part of overhead or based on the extent to which word processing was used. After such analysis, Fried Frank elected to keep its charges for word processing as a disbursement. Fried Frank concluded that it was fairer to its clients not to increase its billing rates to account for word processing services that might or might not be used by the client. In this way, only clients who used such services would be charged for services.

45. The time constraints imposed by the time-sensitive circumstances of these Chapter 11 Cases, and by the size and complexity of these Chapter 11 Cases required Fried Frank's attorneys and other employees to devote substantial amounts of time during the evenings and on weekends to the performance of legal services on behalf of the Equity Committee. As a consequence, Fried Frank was required to incur overtime secretarial charges to discharge its professional responsibilities.

46. Fried Frank attempted to reduce overtime secretarial charges and to limit them to instances where such were necessary, by encouraging its attorneys to use a secretarial pool. If a secretary was not needed at the attorney's desk for the entire evening, the attorney was required to bring his or her work to the firm's secretarial pool. The client was then only charged for the word processing charges associated with the document, rather than charging the client for a secretary spending an entire evening at a desk whether or not the attorney actually used the secretary for the entire time.

47. Fried Frank's attorneys and other employees who worked overtime and late into the evenings were reimbursed for their reasonable meal costs and their transportation costs home. Such transportation costs are necessary expenses because it is a Fried Frank policy to ensure safe transportation for its attorneys and staff after the hours when public transportation cannot be deemed safe. Fried Frank's regular practice is to charge its clients for these and other out-of-pocket disbursements incurred during the regular course of the rendition of services.

48. Since certain members of the Equity Committee and other key parties in interest in the Chapter 11 Cases, and/or their counsel, are located outside of New York, some long-distance telephone calls were required.² Fried Frank also incurred expenses for delivery of documents.

49. Fried Frank made every effort to minimize its disbursements in providing its legal services to the Equity Committee. The expenses incurred in the rendition of professional services were necessary, reasonable and justified under the circumstances to serve the needs of the Equity Committee and were billed at rates and in accordance with practices customarily employed by Fried Frank and generally accepted by Fried Frank's clients.

WAIVER OF MEMORANDUM OF LAW

50. Pursuant to Local Rule 9013-1(b), Fried Frank respectfully requests that the Court waive the requirement that Fried Frank file a memorandum of law in support of this Fee Application, since this Fee Application raises no novel issues of law.

NOTICE

51. In compliance with the Interim Compensation Order, notice of the filing of this Fee Application has been provided to all parties who have filed a notice of appearance with the Clerk of this Court and requested notice of pleadings in these Chapter 11 Cases. In addition, the Fee Application in its entirety has been served on the following parties: (i) Delphi Corporation, 5725 Delphi Drive, Troy, Michigan 48098, Att'n: David Sherbin, Esq., (ii) counsel to the Debtors, Skadden, Arps, Slate & Meagher & Flom LLP, 333 West Wacker Drive, Suite 2100, Chicago, Illinois 60606, Attn.: John Wm. Butler Jr., (iii) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York, 33 Whitehall Street, Suite 2100, New York, New York 10004, Att'n: Alicia M. Leonhard, Esq., (iv) counsel for the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors, Latham & Watkins LLP, 885 Third Avenue, New York, New York 10022-4802, Att'n: Robert J. Rosenberg, Esq., (v) counsel for the agent under the Debtors' prepetition credit facility, Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP, 425 Lexington Avenue, New York, New York 10017, Att'n: Marissa Wesley, Esq., (vi) counsel for the agent under the Debtors' postpetition credit facility, Davis Polk & Wardwell, 450 Lexington Avenue, New York, New York 10017, Att'n: Donald Bernstein, Esq. and Brian Resnick, Esq., (vii) the members of the Fee Review Committee, and (viii) Legal Cost Control Inc., 255 Kings Highway East, Haddonfield, NJ 08033, Att'n: Susan Trevejo. In light of the nature of the relief requested, the Equity Committee submits that no other or further notice is necessary.

CONCLUSION

52. Although every effort has been made to include all Fees and Expenses incurred in the Fee Period in this Fee Application, some Fees and Expenses might not be included in this Fee Application due to delays caused by accounting processing procedures.
